PROCLAMATION

From October 15 to 31 the organized business interests in sixty-five of the cities and towns in our state will carry on a Better Housing Program under the auspices of the Federal Housing Administration.

During this period I earnestly urge home owners and owners of business interests to take advantage of the housing program to the end that idle men may again be employed, and business in each community stimulated through the circulation of money paid for materials and labor.

I trust that special emphasis may be given to the Better Housing Program during the above designated period, and that the objective expressed in the slogan, "Make Homes out of Houses," may be realized.

Dated at Pierre, South Dakota, this 15th day of October, 1934.
